CITYLINKS '92 TO BE HELD AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

DAYTON, Ohio -- The University of Dayton will sponsor CityLinks '92, the 8th Annual Conference for Dayton Neighborhoods, on Saturday, Nov. 7, 1992. Sessions will run from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at UD's Miriam Hall. The registration fee is $12 per person or $20 per couple and includes lunch.

CityLinks is a conference for people in the Dayton area who are interested in improving their neighborhoods and making Dayton a better place to live. Workshops will tell success stories of community development in Dayton, such as the "Grow with your Neighbors" program which has resulted in community gardens across the Dayton area. They will also focus on ways that residents can organize to accomplish changes in their neighborhoods and learn to build political momentum.

CityLinks was created eight years ago as a forum for sharing approaches that work. "We bring groups together that don't generally come across the river. We link them," said Dean Lovelace, program coordinator for neighborhood development.

The registration deadline is Oct. 30. For registration forms and more information, call SRD-Neighborhood Development at 229-4641.
